

Event Brief

A TNT Global Team needed a venue that was easily accessible to Birmingham International Airport, as participants were flying in from all over the TNT globe. They wanted to have an annual update meeting in the morning for all the delegates, followed by some informal team activities that provided them with the opportunity to get to know each other better. This team operate remotely most of the time with little opportunity to do this other than through work and operations.

For the afternoon, we proposed a series of short exercises followed by a short review, each one focusing on specific skills for team and task success. Engaging the teams in reviews provided a deeper understanding of each other, their strengths and development areas, abilities and talents.

The day culminated in a three team exercise that focused on vision, common understanding of deliverables and team collaboration on delivery - mirroring the TNT global team's objectives perfectly and providing many opportunities for them to learn outside the workplace whilst having fun!
